Revenue Cutters Are Hurrying to Rescue of Little Vessels.

Norfolk, Va., February 14.—Hurrying to the assistance of stranded schooners, two revenue cutters are proceeding in opposite directions to-night. The revenue cutter Seneca is en route to assist the schooner Bay-southwest of Diamond Shoals Lightship, and the revenue cutter Pamlico is speeding to the assistance of the small schooner Lucetta, ashore off Middleton anchorage, in Pamlico Sound. The latter vessel is reported to be in a critical condition. She is commanded by Captain E. D. Sewall. The news of the distress of the Bay-southwest was received here in a wireless from Diamond Shoals Lightship. The revenue cutter Pamlico, being nearest to port, was ordered to get under way at full speed.

FASHIONS FOR SPRING

Dresses to be "Floppy" and Hats Small, With One Side Turned Up. [Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] Paris, February 14.—Spring dresses are to be loose and "floppy," according to the announcement of the recognized organ of the exclusive dressmaking studios, which appears to-morrow.

The low skirts are to be surrounded by heavy flounces, giving a short ermine effect. Sleeves for day wear are to be short and easy, bodices are to be cut loose, and collars are to be high and open.

Evening dresses are to be sleeveless and markedly décolleté. Gold and silver brocades are to be the favored stuffs for evening gowns.

Hats are to be small, set forward, with one side turned up sharply, and trimmed heavily with gay-colored flowers.

IN MEMORIAM

BURGER.—In sad but loving remembrance of my dear husband and father, HENRY BURGER, who died one year ago, February 13, 1913. "Peace, perfect peace." BY HIS WIFE AND DAUGHTER.

LOVINGS.—In sad but loving remembrance of my husband and father, FREDERICK LOVINGS, who died one year ago to-day, February 15, 1913.

"Tis hard to break the tender cord,
When love has been so long and true."
"Tis hard, so hard, to speak the words,
We must forever depart."
WIFE, CHILDREN AND MOTHER.

Dearest father, thou hast left us, we thy loss most deeply feel, to thee we turn for comfort and relief, thou hast left us broken-hearted, but we hope some day to meet, never more apart. In the graveyard softly sleeping, where the flowers grow, lies the one we love so dearly, whom we never more can see. As around the grave we linger, when the setting sun is low.

By his devoted children,
PEARL AND HENRY.
